“...you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church.”

The Canaanite woman's confrontation of Jesus demonstrates great faith. She says, yes, I am dog; a crumb will be enough to heal my daughter. Jesus said to her, “O woman great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire,” and her daughter was healed instantly.” She was persistent. She knew that if Jesus did not answer, there would be no answer, if Jesus can't do it, nobody can.

Jesus says to Peter “you of little faith, why did you doubt?” Peter started to sink because he took his eyes off Jesus and focus on the high waves around him. How many times have we said those words? Lord, save me! I am suffering, failing and dying, when we lose our focus. In those times, Jesus speaks, “don’t be afraid, take courage.”

Jesus declares that church will be built on the rock of Peter’s confession of faith. “Jesus said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” Just like Peter whenever we share the gospel with others, we are using the key to open the door to heaven. The church will be built on us. Before sharing the gospel with others we must first we learn to care and share like the boy in Jesus feeding the five thousand people miracle.

The great faith led to healing, the little faith developed as rock of faith on which Christ build His church. Be the rock of faith!

God bless

Homebound Members

We are looking for a team of dedicated volunteers to deliver Holy Communion to our homebound members. Each month our homebound members are divided into geographic groups of no more than 2-3 visits. Our visitors call the folks on their list and arrange a visit time. Doesn't this sound like a great way to serve? Sign up today on the mission board.
